

Intelligent Energy  Europe

Deriving a future European Policy for Renewable Electricity

Website: www.futures-e.org

Harmonisation and Coordination of European RES-E support mechanisms

>> Consequences for the South East region <<

11th April 2008

Location: Europa Center, Dalmatinova 4, Ljubljana, Slovenia

(Further information: <http://www.center-evropa.si/default-300.html>)

Draft Agenda

09:00 – 09:30 Registration and coffee

Welcome

09:30 – 09:40 Welcome by national host
Silvo Škornik, Ministry of Economy, Directorate for Energy, Slovenia

09:40 – 09:50 Introduction: aim of this workshop, Katarina Vertin APE, Ltd.

09:50 – 13:00 Status of renewable electricity in the South East region
Chair: Franko Nemac, APE, Ltd.

09:50 – 11:10 Status of RES-E in countries in the South-East region (15 minutes/country)

Slovenia, Romania, Bulgaria, Austria, Croatia

11:10 – 11:30 Questions and discussion: What can be learned from policies throughout the region? What is best practice? What barriers exist?
All participants and chairman

11:30 – 12:00 Coffee break

12:00 – 12:20 Consequences of BAU and evolving national policy scenarios:
Results from the Green-X model
Christian PANZER / Gustav RESCH, EEG – Vienna University of Technology

12:20 – 12:40 FIT – from State aid to RES deployment instrument in Slovenia, Franko Nemac, APE, Ltd.

12:40 – 13:00 Questions and discussion
All participants and chairman

13:00 – 14:00 Lunch

14:00 – 16:30	Options and Consequences of increased harmonisation or coordination of renewable electricity policy in the South-East region Chair: Gustav Resch, EEG – Vienna University of Technology
14:00 – 14:20	Status of current EU policy proposals Karina Veum, DG TREN, European Commission
14:20 – 15:00	Defining coordination and harmonisation of European RES-E support mechanisms & Analysis of the GO trade in the Directive proposal Mario RAGWITZ, Fraunhofer ISI
15:00 – 15:25	Consequences of possible harmonisation and coordination scenarios: Results from the Green-X model Christian PANZER / Gustav RESCH, EEG – Vienna University of Technology
15:25 – 15:40	Coffee break
15:40 – 16:00	Short statements from panel of countries representatives: What form should any harmonization or coordination of policies take? What regional action is required?
16:00 – 16:20	Discussion – participant viewpoints

Closing remarks

16:20 – 16:30	Conclusions and round up
16:30	End of conference

Presentations will be made available on the website www.futures-e.org